The Modesty of Women

Naturally makes them shrink from the indelicate questions, the obnoxious examinations, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annoyance and shame for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the cure which dispenses with the examinations and local treatments. There is no other medicine so sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating drains, irregularity and female weakness. It always helps. It almost always cures. It is strictly non-alcoholic, non-secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper; contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strongest of professional endorsements of its ingredients, will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of KNOWN COMPOSITION. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound.

If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels.

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney Nerves. The Kidneys, like the Heart, and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine scalds, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggist recommend and sell

LION ATTACKS WOMAN.

Torn, bruised and suffering from shock, Mrs. Anna A. Hucke, 55 years old, of Pittsburg, Pa., lies at her home in a precarious condition as the result of an attack by a lion at Luna Park, a summer resort in Pittsburg, yesterday, Mrs. Hucke was rescued almost from the jaws of death while she lay on the ground where the animal had thrown her, while scores of rescuers were firing a fusilade of bullets into the blood-crazed beast, who, meanwhile, was biting and clawing at the woman's body.

The attack occurred about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, when the park was crowded with women and children. Without warning, the lion appeared from behind one of the buildings, and, with a roar, the while lashing his tail, he crouched and sprang for Mrs. Hucke, who was nearest to him. The woman screamed and attracted the attention of the crowds.

Soon screams of the hundreds stampeding for the exits were added to Mrs. Hucke's distressing cries, but these did not distract the lion from his assault.

The noise of the panic attracted the attention of W. A. Downing, chief of the park police, who came running to the rescue. He found the lion tearing away at the woman's clothing, and, having drawn his revolver while running he immediately emptied all the chambers into the beast.

Repeatedly Downing reloaded his gun and fired with but little effect. Other rescuers fired rifles and soon a score were shooting at the lion. Still standing over the prostrate woman, gnashing his teeth and lashing his tail, the lion stood with the ground about him literally plowed up by the hundreds of shots that were being fired at him.

Soon, with the noise of the firearms and the shouts of the woman's rescuers, the lion turned and rushed toward the show known as the "Mystic River," where he made his last stand. Here, with the continued bombardment, the brute succumbed, and, sinking down upon the ground, he turned over on his back, and, with a few kicks and grasps, he died. His skin was completely riddled with the small caliber bullets that had been fired at him and took effect.

[A dispatch from Pittsburg says Mrs. Hucke died today from her injuries.]

SHARK AFTER WOMEN.

After spreading terror among the bathers at Beekman's beach and pursuing two young women who had ventured a considerable distance from shore, a six-foot shark was caught at Oyster Bay, L. I., yesterday morning and is now on exhibition at Mr. Beekman's boathouse.

The shark first appeared to Miss Maude English. She had swam out several hundred yards in the bay and was disporting in the water, when a warning shout went up from shore. The group on the beach, consisting mostly of girls, saw a large fish leap partly out of the water a short distance from the swimmer and make directly for her.

Miss English heard the shout "Shark!" and headed for shore, but the fish was gaining rapidly on her, when her sister, Mrs. Anna McMullin went to her assistance. The commotion she made in the water, coupled with the noise of those on the beach throwing stones, diverted the shark and it started for Mrs. McMullin.

This gave Miss English an opportunity to reach shore, but she was so exhausted that she fainted and had to be carried up from the beach. Mrs. McMullin, also turned back and the shark chased her into shallow water.

The screams of the bathers brought several of the farmhands on the Beekman property and they launched a boat and started after the shark, which was then floundering near the shore. The men attacked the big fish with oars and a boat-hook and soon killed it. It measured a little short of six feet and had two rows of teeth.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free Book. ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, AUG. 28, 1907.

NEW light has been thrown upon the active opposition of Senator Foraker, of Ohio, to the candidacy of Secretary Taft for the presidency by the discovery in the Senate document room of a bill, introduced by Senator Foraker in 1904, the provisions of which would, if enacted, utterly destroy the effectiveness of the Sherman anti-trust law, the interstate commerce law and other statutes making possible the restriction and regulation of criminal trusts and interstate transportation corporations. Senator Foraker at the present time is the only prominent republican in public life who is openly and actively fighting Secretary Taft. There are others known to be against him, especially the several astute gentlemen who hope that through some combination of circumstances they may themselves be presidential possibilities. But none of these is actively fighting the big secretary of war, and none of them is likely to take a position adverse to the policies Mr. Taft has advocated in his recent speeches. Senator Foraker alone is criticising Secretary Taft's utterances, questioning his sincerity and combating his arguments. Mr. Foraker alone of the leading republican senators openly fought the President's railroad regulation and other policies in the Senate of the United States, and Mr. Foraker alone is now regarded as the representative and spokesman of the reactionaries, who would do away with all President Roosevelt has accomplished and re-establish the old order of plundering by corporations and political manipulation through corrupt political machines. Because he has been "by merit raised to this bad eminence" the motives behind Senator Foraker's singular course and the purposes he would accomplish are not only of interest, but are of the utmost importance to the country as indicating what would happen should that element of the population for which Senator Foraker speaks obtain control of the republican national convention and nominate and elect a President of its own choosing.

MRS. A. B. SIMS of Des Moines, winner of the woman's whist championship of the United States, stood before an audience of 4,000 at Winona Lake a few nights since and told why she burned up the 40 decks of cards that she had at her home. She said:

It wss not uncommon for me to play whist from 10 a. m. to 11 p. m. After that I saw what I was really doing. I burned up all the pasteboards, and I should like to speak in every church to the women and tell them what card playing led me to and what it will lead them to. It was undermining our church. The whist and euchre parties were sweeping the women of the congregation, and the church was sinking because of their neglect. The card craze as it prevails among women is the most serious competitor the church has today.

Does this strike home to any of the women in this section of the country?

THE IRISH evicted tenants bill finally passed both houses of Parliament yesterday evening in an emasculated form. The peers refused to budge on the main amendments, and in spite of the goads of the nationalist members the government elected to accept the mutilated measure rather than abandon the bill entirely. The principal amendments inserted by the House or Lords deprive the commissioners of the power of turning out the present holders of farms for the purpose of reinstating evicted tenants, and give landlords the right to appeal to the law courts against the rulings of the estate commissioners regarding the value of land to be purchased.

JUDGE PRITCHARD, of the U. S. Court at Asheville decided yesterday in the North Carolina rate dispute that he has jurisdiction and that the injunction to restrain State officials from enforcing the new law stands. It is hoped that the matter will soon be definitely settled in the courts and that all the excitement caused by the attempted enforcement of the rate law will subside.

A NEW DRINK has made its appearance in Taunton, Mass. It is known as "Kate Carney." The first glass, it is said, makes a man sing, the second causes him to dance, and after drinking the third he begins to throw glasses about.

From Washington.

Washington, Aug. 28.

Announcement is made at the State Department today that President Roosevelt and President Diaz, of Mexico, are now in full accord on methods to be pursued to secure permanent peace in Central America. It is further announced that a formal statement on the subject may be expected within the next twenty-four hours. While details are lacking officially, this statement is understood to mean that the chief executives of this country and of Mexico have agreed upon the terms of an identical note addressed to the five Central American republics urging upon them the necessity of putting a permanent stop to the constantly recurring dissensions which have disturbed the peace of that region of the world and interfered with commerce practically every year. It is further understood that replies of a favorable nature have been received from each of the States interested, Nicaragua, Guatemala, Honduras, Salvador and Costa Rica, and that a peace movement of a really stable nature is actually on foot. No details have yet been made for the holding of a peace conference among the Central American republics but that will be the next step.

At the conclusion of a week's crusade against "bucket shops," the District Attorney has closed every establishment of the kind in the District of Columbia, so he claims. "Closed, business suspended" and kindred signs cover the blackboards of many a "broker's" office in the financial section. The grand jury is considering the evidence against the establishments that have been raided and it is expected that a dozen or more proprietors will be indicted before the day is over. The war on the "bucket shops" is said to be due to insistent complaints made against them at the District Attorney's office by the heads of various federal executive departments. Wives of hundreds of government clerks have made direct appeals to them to do something to stop their husbands from squandering all but a mere pittance of their salaries, in patronizing these "get-rich-quick" places.

The grand jury today returned indictments against Chesley and Spence, Wade and Hodges, and Frank Kane, alleged "bucket shop" men on the charge of violating the anti-gambling laws. It is said more indictments will follow.

Any one who serves his country in the Philippines deserves a better fate than to go to an "unknown grave," is the opinion of War Department officials. Hence the issuance of an order by Major General Leonard Wood, under which ample precautions are to be taken to prevent confusion as to the identity of bodies after burial. The order requires that in the coffin of every officer, soldier, or civilian employee of the army, shall be placed a securely corked bottle, containing a paper with a statement of the name, rank, regiment and company or corps of the deceased, and the date and cause of death. In the wilds of the Philippines there is a possibility of tombstones being mutilated or destroyed.

American wheat growers and exporters have their eyes on the Argentine Republic, which is known for its wheat output as well as its cattle product, as early reports from that country show that another bumper crop is on. Reports of American consular officials in Argentina state that the orginal estimate of that country's wheat crop for this season places the quantity at 4,000,000 tons, of which 2,800,000 tons are available for export and the remaining 1,200,000 are required for home consumption and seeding. The exports this year will be far in excess of those last year, which were 2,280,000 tons. The exportage this year will be close up to the high record for that country 2,866,954 tons, is 1905.

There were 1,126,748 cubic yards of earth excavated from the Panama canal during the month of July, according to a detailed report from Chief Engineer Goethals today. It is stated that the excavation in the Culebra division was as much as for the same months of 1906, and that the average output per steam shovel per month was 85 per cent greater. Health conditions are reported to be very satisfactory. With 88,000 employes on the payrolls there were only 1,097 cases of sickness as against 1,107 with but 28,000 employes a year ago.

Amos Stickney was retired from active service in the engineer corps of the army today as a brigadier general having reached the age limit fixed by law. He served in the latter years of the civil war and distinguished himself later by his service in connection with the Mississippi river improvements and harbor work in the middle west.

Rear Admiral Chas. H. Davis retired from active service today having reached the age of 62 years. His last assignment was in command of the second squadron of the Atlantic fleet.

The home given to Admiral Dewey by the American people has been leased to Frank Mitchell, millionaire clubman. Admiral Dewey has not lived in the house for nearly a year, having found it too small for the entertaining he has been called upon to do.

TWO ERAS.

In his Lexington speech Mr. Taft used this singular language for the purpose of bringing in a compliment to his chief as personally popular in the South:

"We have arrived in the history of the politics of this country at what seems to be a repetition of that condition which existed at the end of Monroe's second administration, called the era of good feeling."

The "era of good feeling" may be said to have covered most of Monroe's two administrations up to the struggle for the succession in 1824, but we do not quarrell with Mr. Taft's history. He has a delegated and reflected authority to regulate history or anything else. When, however, we recall the fact that only one electoral vote was cast against Monroe in 1821 the prehaps unconscious Byzantinism of Mr. Taft's comparison looks royally purple. At any rate the era of good feeling does not promise to exist at the end of Theodore Roosevelt's administration. It does not now exist. With ever increasing vehemence he is trying to produce an era of bad feeling. He is baiting wealth to the wild cheers of the garden. He is inflaming and has been inflaming and will not cease to inflame the smaller damagogues, the ignorant, the envious, the shiftless, all the discontented, restless and dangerous passions and forces of the community. From Washington the plague has spread all over the United States. And the victims, a growing number, of Mr. Roosevelt's holy war against capital and enterprise and credit, are they enjoying an era of good felling?

The present condition is about as much like that which existed in Monroe's administration as a dog fight is like the Hague conference.—[N. Y. Sun.

Searching for Missing Garments.

Lake Hopatcong, N. J., Aug. 28.—With all the energy which was at first devoted to the search for Miss Agnes Maguire, until the body of the missing Brooklyn school teacher, drowned in the lake, the woods about Nolans Point are being searched today to locate her missing skirt and hat. The mystery of her death cannot be definitely cleared up until these articles are found.

Albert Steemelen, of Detroit, Mich., a bookkeeper, became insane yesterday, and taking his two-years-old daughter Helen to the Belle Isle bridge last night threw her into the Detroit river and watched the little one struggle and drown. Leaving the bridge he went to police headquarters and calmly announced what he had done.

Pretty 15-year-old Annie Newman, of New York, not only discovered a man under her bed early yesterday but sprang upon him and held him until her father, hearing her screams, rushed into the room and seized the intruder. The girl saw a man's head slowly emerge from beneath the bed. The head was followed by shoulders and body. Then the man stood up. In an instant the girl was upon him, freightening him almost out of his senses by her sudden attack and her loud screams for help.

RATE LAW INJUNCTION.

Judge Pritchard, in the United States Circuit Court, in a long expected opinion, announced at Asheville, N. C., yesterday in the rate case of the Southern Railway against the Corporation Commission and the attorney general of North Carolina, upholds the jurisdiction of his court in the issuance of the recent injunctions against state officials.

He decicass that the suit is not one against the state within the meaning of the eleventh amendment to the federal consitution. That amendment holds the judicial power of the United States shall not extend to any suit against a state by citizens of another state.

The decision says that a state Legislature cannot so frame an act as to deprive a citizen of a right vouchsafed him by the federal constitution and it does not possess the power "to deprive this court of its jurisdiction, and the sooner those questions are definitely determined the better it will be for all parties concerned."

The decision holds that the Corporation Commission is still charged with making rates, the only limitation upon its power being "that it shall not make a maximum rate in North Carolina in excess of 2½ cents per mile. The Corporation Commission and the attorney general are specially charged with the duty of obtaining the enforcement of section 4 of the passenger rate act, which provides heavy penalties and fines for a failure of railroads and their officials to comply with that act."

All laws in existence on the passage of that act bearing on supervision and control of railroads, etc., are to be construed in connection with the rate act.

"It is inconceivable," the decision says, "that a circuit court of the United States, in the exercise of its jurisdiction, should be powerless to afford a remedy to one who seeks to assert a right which is guaranteed by the constitution of the United States.

"This is in no sense a suit against the State, nor can it be successfully contended that the State is in any wise a party in interest, in so far as the merits of the controversy are concerned."

VEILED WOMAN AND KING.

A Mrs. Shapeley, of New York, was the heroine of a street adventure in Marienbad Monday, in which she and King Edward of England appeared in the stellar roles, while a ecore of officious policemen filed in the supernumerary parts in a way that was far from satisfactory to themselves.

By trying to prevent Mrs. Shapeley from reaching him the police aroused the indignation of the king, who berated them roundly. Yesterday Mrs. Shapeley, an old friend of the king, approached Edward on the street, wearing a heavy veil at the time. When she made her indentity known Edward greeted her with expressions of marked pleasure and asked for her photograph. She departed to get it, and the police scene was enacted when she returned.

The first meeting had not impressed the police, who regarded Mrs. Shapeley's heavy veil with suspicion. As she approached they crowded about the king and kept elbowing Mrs. Shapeley away. When she persisted in trying to reach Edward they finally seized her. It was this act which aroused the king's wrath, and in warm language he told the officious blunderers what he thought of them.

Russian Passport Law.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 28.—It is announced positively today that the report given out by a steamship agent in New York yesterday that the Russian passport law had been abrogated is absolutely without foundation. In fact there has been no relaxation in the discrimination against Jews and no change in the requirements made upon all persons fleeing the country.

THE JAMESTOWN FRICTION.

With the return to Norfolk of President Tucker it was thought the social war between the two exposition factions, one headed by himself and the other by Director-General Barr, would take a new and perhaps exciting turn, but such was not the case. The president was reserved and guarded in what he said. Mr. Barr will return to Norfolk today.

It is said there was a wordy clash between the president and director-general over the lawn party given Prince Wilhelm by President and Mrs. Tucker. The director-general, some say, went so far as to threaten to stop the affair with the Powhatan guard, and there are those who now believe that the clash must result in either the president or director-general resigning. Some of those believing this are members of the exposition board of directors, but there are strong hopes that the differences may yet be adjusted.

The exposition directors held a meeting yesterday afternoon, and while no action was taken on the Tucker-Barr situation it was freely discussed. It seemed that Tucker had more friends in the board than Barr and had the directors voted on the question it would probably have been voted that Barr exceeded his authority in deposing Tucker as the social director of the exposition and assigning Charles W. Kohlsaat to that duty.

The discussion of the question was warm.

They adjourned to meet again Friday, when it is expected the controversy will be finally settled.

The directors yesterday voted that the pay of the advisory board of governors shall be $15 a day, to serve in an advisory capacity when called upon.

When the attention of Gov. Swanson was yesterday morning called to an article in which his name was used and the statement made that he had taken the part of Director General Barr, of the Jamestown Exposition, in the social mix-up in connection with the management of the exposition, he dictated the following statement:

"The statement that I have participated in the matter in any way is absolutely false and without any foundation whatever. I have not interfered with or concerned myself in the management of the Jamestown Exposition.

"Both Mrs. Swanson and myself have had all we could do attending to the Virginia features of the exposition, and have had neither time nor inclination to go outside of this. Mr. and Mrs. Barr and Mr. and Mrs. Tucker have been uniformly invited to all entertainments given by us, and we have attended entertainments given by Mr. and Mrs. Tucker. They were at the dinner given to Prince Wilhelm, of Sweden, occupying seats of honor at Prince Wilhelm's table.

"I have seen Mr. Barr only once since he has been Director-General, and that was some weeks ago in connection with conditions at Pine Beach. This matter is entirely one for the Exposition company, and one with which I have nothing to do. My relations with Mr. Barr and Mr. Tucker are pleasant, and I will continue to co-operate to make the Exposition a success and a credit to the State. I have not had and will not have anything to do with any dissensions that may exist in connection with the management of the Jamestown Exposition Company.

"The entertainments and hospitality extended by the Exposition company are solely under their control, and are wholly separate from those given by me and the officers of the Virginia Commission.

"I have no knowledge of any differences or misunderstandings except such as appear in the papers."

Today's Telegraphic News.

Charged With Assault.

New York, Aug. 28.—With their faces scratched and bruised, as evidence of the rough treatment they received, two girls giving the names of Adele Roberts and Anna Russell, who said they came here Sunday from Chicago with a theatrical company, were in Coney Island police court to push the charge against Abraham Blakeman, who they accused of being one of the men who assaulted them in Ocean Parkway, near Coney Island last night. The girls were picked up unconscious by two men in an automobile and taken to the Coney Island police station. There they said they had been drugged and attacked by two men. Their story was that they had gone to Coney and, finding themselves followed by two men as they started home, had called a cab. The men pursued them in another cab. On overtaking the girls the strangers showed deputy sheriffs' badges and commanded them to "come along" under threats of arrest. They were taken to a cafe and forced to drink beer. Then the ride was resumed. Both girls found themselves weak. They were attacked by the men and finally thrown out into the road. They remembered nothing until they awakened at the police station. Blakeman, a prominent republican politician, was arrested on the description given by the girls and later positively identified by one of them. He denied his guilt and said he could prove an alibi, but was locked up until time to go to the police court.

The two girls were taken to the Coney Island court this morning where they were arraigned on the charge of drunkenness. They frankly acknowledged that they had been intoxicated and had been out for a good time and that the incidents related by them were "fairy stories." The sentence on them was suspended, but Blakeman was held in $200 to await any possible future developments.

Reported Assassination.

London, Aug. 28.—Although no confirmation had reached here this morning of the report from Tangier that Sultan Abd-el-Aziz of Morocco has been assassinated, the greatest uneasiness prevails lest the report be true. The danger of a reign of anarchy throughout Morocco in the event of the Sultan's assassination is what has caused so much fear here. In view of the already disturbed condition of the country a struggle for the throne is regarded as likely to cause complications which it will require months for Europe to straighten out.

London, Aug 28.—Official announcement is made that Moroccon military operations to secure the release of Caid Mac Lean, the Sultan's European military adviser, now held prisoner by Raisuli the bandit have failed, according to the correspondent of the Central News at Tangier.

He adds that the British legation has begun negotiations with Raisuli for Mac Leau's release while the Sultan's troops have retired to Alcazar.

Suspected Murderer.

Chicago, Aug. 28.—Declaring that he had reached Chicago on the blind baggage of a Panhandle passenger train and that he was sick and in need of medical assistance, a man giving the name of Trepon Marino applied to the police for aid early today. He was taken to a hospital and given treatment, but an examination of his clothing, the police assert, warrants holding him in connection with the assault and murder of ten-year-old Lizzie Schroder, near Gary, Indiana. The conclusion is brought about by the finding of the initials "T. M." on the sole of the shoe the man wore. The initials are printed indelibly upon the arms of the murdered child by the heel of her assailant—left there probably as he sought to crush her tiny body beyond recognition.

The Thaw Trial.

New York, Aug. 28.—A plea of temporary insanity from which his client has fully recovered and so far as possible an utter absence of the sensationalism that marked the trial will be the method pursued by Martin W. Littleton at the next trial of Harry K. Thaw for the murder of Stanford White. That has been fully decided on by the former Brooklyn Borough president, who is to have complete charge of the defense of the Pittsburg millionaire. Littleton will not have the trouble with Thaw that the other attorneys in the case have had. The long weary confinement is having its effect on his client, and the headstrong man is more amenable to reason than formerly.

Spent Night on Mountain.

Seattle Wash. Aug. 28.—Miss Lillian Birchard is in the care of physicians here who say there is every prospect of her recovery from a frightful night exposure on Mount Ranier. Separated from friends who attempted to climb the mountain, Miss Birchard was lost at altitude of 3,000 feet. Through a long night she endured snow and cold, sheltered only by a clump of bushes. A St. Bernard dog traced the girl when a rescue party was organized the following morning. Half famished, and with hands and feet frozen Miss Birchard was in a condition of collapse when placed in the hospital.

Alleged Brutality of Soldiers.

Buda-Pesth, Hungary, Aug. 28.—An extraordinary military outrage is reported today from Panad, Transylvania. Officers of the Twenty-ninth Honved regiment, after a prolonged drinking bout, are accused of ordering their soldiers to organize and massacre the entire population of the village. The men lost no time in carrying out orders, attacking every person found in the streets. Then they broke into houses attacking scores of persons in the beds. Six residents of the village are reported to have been fatally wounded and scores severely hurt.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Aug. 28.—The active issues on the floor of the exchange opened strong and made material gains during the first hour on buying coming from several sources. The incentive of the movement was the unofficial announcement of the treasury plan to relieve the money situation. There was a good deal of covering of shorts, but there was no important selling pressure in any part of the room, forcing buyers to advance bids constantly in order to obtain stocks. At the end of the first hour the market was firm with prices of the majority of the list 1 to 1½ points above yesterday's closing. In government bonds the new fours declined ½; railroad and other bonds were steady.

Queen Titiana Now Rules.

Asbury Park, Aug. 28.—Queen Titiana VII. Miss Jessie May Hazelrigg, was crowned Queen of the Asbury Park Carnival with elaborate ceremonies in the great amphitheatre on the ocean front last night. Six hundred young girls in Japanese costume and 400 boys in rough rider suits took part. One hundred young women in groups of ten represented the Congress of Nations. There were more women dressed as gypsies. From six entrances of the amphitheatre 1,000 children marched to either side of the Queen's Court. The Queen wore a robe of heavy white brocaded satin with a mantel of ermine and white silk embroidered with gold. She received her sceptre and crown from little Virginia Hope Kelsey, dressed as a fairy. The Queen's party was escorted to and from the amphitheatre in open victorias. She was accompanied by eight maios of honor, Princess Cinderella and Prince Charming, all attired in court costumes. The Queen will rule over Asbury Park until Saturday night. She will hold a court ball tonight and Thursday will review the baby parade, for which more than 500 children have been entered. Friday night the beach front will be given over to 30,000 maskers.

Could Live Like Magnate.

Uniontown, Pa., Aug. 28.—With 60 neckties, 22 hats and enough clo hing to dress a monarch, J. H. D. Beaird, Uniontown agent for Adams Express Company, has been cutting a wider swath in Fayette than has Millionaire Thompson, who owns the skyscraper which contained Beaird and his suite of exquisitely furnished apartments.

Superintendent Murphy, of the Philadelphia office of the Adams Express Company, made a personal investigation of his agent's extravagances, and as a result Beaird was arrested, charged with embezzling $1,700 of the company's money. Beaird's system was holding back cash on delivery money, and he has been working it six months.

Unknown Dead Woman.

Dover, N. H., Aug. 28.—This city has a mystery that parallels the strange death of Agnes Maguire in Dover, N. J. At the house of Dr. Harry Stackpole lies the body of a beautiful girl, about 23 years old, which, unless identified today, will be buried in an unmarked grave. The girl came here several day ago suffering from the effects of an operation and died, leaving nothing to establish her identity but a purse and hair brush marked with the intials "K. R." Before her death she took every precaution to hid her identity, telling the physician only that her name was "Kitty." Thus far every effort to learn who she was has failed.

President Entertains Prince.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 28.—President Roosevelt's neighbors were treated today to a view of a real live Prince when Welhelm of Sweden, who, if he lives, will some day succeed to the throne now occupied by his grandfather, Oscar II., was the President's guest at luncheon. A large crowd was on hand to welcome the distinguished guest. The Swedish Minister, Baron Lagercrantz, and a party of lesser lights accompanied the prince. Later in the day President Roosevelt will meet the foreign delegates to the National Zoological Congress, which is in session at Cold Spring, where the State fish hatcheries are maintained.

Congress of Anarchists.

Amsterdam, Holland, Aug. 28.—The anarchists who are holding their international congress here today proved themselves fully entitled to the name when they got into such a fierce argument over whether the subject of "anti-militarism as a weapon of anarchism" should be considered, that they refused to heed the chairman and it was necessary to adjourn the session. Today was devoted largely to hearing reports from various countries showing the growth of anarchism. Delegate Vohnyk declared that the Bohemian anarchists now number 26,000 agriculturists and 30,000 industrial workers.

Armenians Arrested.

Constantinople, Aug. 28.—Three Armenians coming from America were arrested today by the police who charge that the purpose of the visit is to reorganize revolutionaries for demonstrations and outbreaks against the Sultan during the celebrations next week in honor of his ascension to the Turkish throne. Letters which the Armenians bore show they are connected with a band of Chicago Armenians.

Senator Machen Asks Renomination.

To the Democrats of the Fourteenth Senatorial District:

I hereby announce that I shall seek a renomination as State Senator at the democratic primary September 10th.

For many years it has been the custom in this district to return a Senator for a second term if he so desired, and I trust that a careful scrutiny of my official record will not disclose any reason for violating this custom at this time.

Having been a resident of Alexandria for more than 5 years, and having been for a much longer period associated in business and otherwise with the people of the city, it is natural to suppose that I understand its needs and could serve its interests in the legislature as well as some one who is not a resident and has had no legislative experience. I solicit the generous support of my home city.

Respectfully,
aug16 td LEWIS H. MACHEN.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE 14TH SENATORIAL DISTRICT. I respectfully announce myself a candidate for State Senate in the democratic primary September 10th, 1907. ALEX. J. WEDDERBURN.

To the Democratic voters of the 14th Senatorial district:

I hereby announce myself a candidate for Senator from the 14th Senatorial District of Virginia, subject to the democratic primary to be held on September 10, 1907, and if nominated and elected, I pledge myself to the service of the best interests of the district and State. Very Respectfully,

R. E. THORNTON.

Fairfax, Va., Aug. 17.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF ALEXANDRIA CITY AND COUNTY:

I respectfully announce that I will be a candidate for re-election to the House of Delegates of Virginia, subject to the decision of the democratic primary to be held on the 10th day of September, 1907. I beg to express my sincere appreciation of the confidence expressed by my fellow citizens in conferring this honor upon me for three successive terms, and to assure them, if re-elected, that, as I have in the past, I will in the future devote my best energies and abilities to represent faithfully the interests of the constituency which has so often honored me.

DEATH OF O. F. BAGGETT.

Mr. Oscar F. Baggett, a well-known and popular Alexandrian who had been in failing health for some time, died by his own hand at his residence on Duke street, between Pitt and St. Asaph, early last night. The deceased had been a sufferer from nervous indigestion for a long time, and less than a year ago he was compelled to relinquish a remunerative business by reason of his ailment. His condition became more serious daily, and realizing that his case was hopeless, he naturally grew despondent and found himself anticipating with satisfaction the day when he would be freed from the burdens of his mortal life. While his family realized that his melancholy was becoming more pronounced daily, they had no idea that it would culminate in such a desperate act as that of last night. He was with his wife a few minutes before he committed the act talking on miscellaneous subjects, and asked her if there was any news outside the ordinary in the afternoon papers. Upon receiving a negative answer, he arose and proceeded to the rear of the house, and a few minutes later Mrs. Baggett heard the report of a pistol. She went in search of her husband, supposing he was in the kitchen. Not finding him there, she went to a brick stable in the rear of the house and found him lying on the floor with a bullet wound in the right temple and unconscious. Dr. Thomas Gibson was summoned, and after an examination announced the hopeless nature of the wound. Later Dr. S. B. Moore, the Coroner, arrived, and, upon learning the facts in the case, said an inquest was unnecessary. Mr. Baggett lived about an hour after he had shot himself.

The deceased was a son of the late John H. Baggett, a well-known butcher of by-gone years, and in early life he succeeded his father in that business, and during more than a third of a century his stall in the market was well-known and well-patronized. Mr. Baggett was in the 61st year of his age. He was married twice. He leaves four children by his first wife—Wilbert, Kenneth and George Baggett, and Mrs. Ida Smithers, wife of Mr. Charles H. Smithers, chief train dispatcher of the Washington division of the Southern Railway. By his second wife, who was Miss Effie Lynch, he had one daughter, Leslie, who is about thirteen years old.

Mr. Baggett was a member and a trustee of Trinity M. E. Church, and had been the superintendent of the Sunday-school of that church thirty years. He had been an earnest and active worker in that church nearly all his life. His donations to charitable purposes were systematic and oft-repeated, and many who had been the recipients of his bounty will mourn the loss of a true friend. The deceased was a member of Alexandria Council, Royal Arcanum; Alexandria Council, Junior Order of Americans, Oriental Lodge, Knights of Pythias, and the Loyal Protective Legion.

ALEXANDRIA DAY.

Yesterday was "Alexandria Day" at Luna Park, and it is estimated that about 7,000 citizens from this city, Alexandria county, Washington and vicinity were on the grounds. The feature of the day was the tournament contested by fourteen riders. The contestants were: A. J. Herring, knight of Luna Park; J. Downs, knight of Alexandria; W. L. Herring, knight of Washington; Lucien Love, knight of Maryland; Lawrence Sieble, knight of St. Joseph; S. Henson, knight of Arlington; Desotes Langley, knight of Capitol Hill; Thomas Head, knight of Munson Hill; R. Sims, knight of Glencarlyn; W. Graham, knight of Corea: H. T. Palmer, knight of Justice; J. Blanford, knight of the District of Columbia; H. T. Hist, knight of Langley, and W. Clark, knight of Virginia. Alfred Herring, of Washington, won the first prize of $25; Thomas Head, of Munson Hill, second prize of $18; Desoto Langley, of Washington, third prize of $12; W. L. Herring, of Washington, fourth prize of $8. Miss Marguerite Browning, of Philadelphia, niece of Charles J. Goodfellow, the manager of Luna Park, was crowned as Queen of Love and Beauty. The coronation address was made by Mr. R. C. L. Moncure. State Senator Lewis Machen delivered the charge to the knights.

DEATH OF AN OLD RESIDENT.

Mr. John T. Hayden, one of the oldest residents of this city, died at the home of his son, Mr. Luther Hayden, on Wilkes street, between 3 and 4 o'clock this morning. The deceased was 91 years old. He was born in Charles county, Md., but came to this city in his boyhood days. In early life Mr. Hayden was a seamen on sailing vessels running between northern ports and Central and South America, and at one time was employed on a steamer making trips between New York and Colon; also on one running to Europe. He later became the owner of a schooner which he ran on the Potomac up to the breaking out of the civil war. At one time during that conflict he was quartermaster on the steamship Warrior, a large government transport. Later in life he worked as a shipcarpenter and at times at rigging. He leaves a widow and nine children—seven sons and two daughters. The deceased had been a consistent member of the Baptist Church during the past third of a century, and was justly esteemed as a quiet and good citizen.

HELD FOR EXAMINATION.

Abram Sayers, the white man arrested in Richmond Saturday night for alleged attempted assault on a widow, will be given a hearing next Monday. The man is in jail, the police justice having refused to grant him bail. Mrs. Turner, whom the man is alleged to have approached, is a very small and delicate woman. She went to Richmond from Alexandria, having been deserted by her husband, a telegraph operator, and she is working to support herself and two small children. Her home is a very humble one, but she is a respectable woman.

ST. MARY'S ACADEMY.

On Tuesday, September 3, St. Mary's Academy will reopen, to enter upon its fortieth year of educational work in our city. Never before in the history of the institution were the Sisters of the Holy Cross more prepared to offer to parents seeking educational advantages for their children splended facilities. A spacious and well equipped school building pleasantly located, a corps of experienced and efficient teachers with lofty ideals and modern methods, and a curriculum of studies that excludes no branch necessary to secure that culture so desirable in every walk of life, make the attainment of a thorough and complete education easy and pleasant. The English course which gives a complete high school education is divided into three departments—primary, preparatory, and academic, each covering a term of four years, at the completion of which the gold medal and diploma of a graduate are conferred. The commercial course into which all pupils desirous of a business education who have completed the eighth grade are allowed to pass, prepares for all kinds of business work, positions being secured as soon as the students are competent to accept them. In this department, which covers two years work, stenography, typewriting, commercial arithmetic, bookkeeping, commercial law, spelling, punctuation and business letter-writing are taught after the most approved methods; pupils who wish to study only shorthand and typewriting or bookkeeping can be prepared for clerical duties in eleven months. The music department under the direction of four teachers offers superior advantages to the music lover; piano, organ, violin and all other stringed instruments, as well as vocal music and the theory of music, so necessary to the perfection of the art, are carefully taught. The students often in public and, whether the entertainment be of a musical or a literary nature, give evidence of the efficient work done along both lines by the sisters, who have devoted their lives to the exalted duty of developing in heart and mind and body the beautiful young souls that come to them, to the end that this trinity of forces may unite and form the perfect woman.

Through St. Mary's aims to offer advantages equal to those of any school of its kind in the land, the rates of tuition are within the reach of all parents who, realizing that they can leave no better legacy to their children than an education such as the academy offers to its patrons, are willing to make sacrifices for its attainment. In addition to careful instructions in all secular branches, the faculty, fully alive to the need of moral development, aim to throw about their pupils a religious environment that tends to exclude all that is unworthy of a noble mind and lofty soul; though careful and constant intruction is given to all Catholic students in the truths and doctrines of their holy faith, no influence is brought to bear upon the non-Catholic pupils whose religious belief is always and everywhere respected. Pupils are received at any time, their tuition beginning from the date of entrance; the teachers, however, are very desirous to have all who intend entering the school enrolled on opening day, as absence at time of class formation and from first explanations tends greatly to impede later progress. Boys under twelve years are admitted into the day school and to the music class. Over two hundred and fifty pupils were in constant attendance during the past year; this enrollment is a proof of the efficiency of the school and the position it holds in the estimation of our citizens. With the added advantages it aims to offer its patrons during the coming year, there is no doubt the records will show a marked increase in the number of its ambitious students.

KILLED BY A TRAIN.

Moses Smith, aged 70 years, a respected resident of Falls Church, was instantly killed while near the railroad station at Falls Church at about 6:30 o'clock yesterday morning by the train on the Bluemont branch of the Southern Railway. Mr. Smith, who was almost deaf, was approaching the station as the train emerged from a deep cut just before it reached the station. He was struck in the back by an iron bar on the locomotive and thrown down an embankment. It was decided that death had been instantaneous. A coroner's jury investigated the matter, and exonerated Engineer Crump from blame. The deceased was a newspaper and magazine writer. His wife survives him.

STEAMER CHARTERED.

It is said around the wharves that the steamer St. Johns will be taken off the Colonial Beach route after next Sunday, when her place will be filled by the steamer Harry Randall. The steamer T. V. BOMB FOR CORTELYOU.

The explosion of what appears to have been a large percussion cap in a package addressed to Secretary of the Treasury George B. Cortelyou created excitement in the Nicetown Substation of the Philadelphia postoffice yesterday. The package, which was collected from a box in the northern section of the city, was received by Clerk Roberts, who says it was about four inches long by two inches wide and three-quarters of an inch thick. When Roberts brought his steel cancellation die down upon the stamp the package exploded and was torn to pieces. Roberts was unhurt. The pieces of paper were put together and the package was found to have been addressed to Secretary Cortelyou, Washington, D. C., the address having been cut from a newspaper and pasted on the package. Chief Postal Inspector James B. Cortelyou, a brother of the secretary, is trying to solve the mystery surrounding the explosion, though most of the authorities think the package was mailed as a joke. There was not sufficient explosive matter in it to have done injury to anyone. What was in the package aside from the explosive cap, the officials will not say.

I'll stop your pain free. To show you first—before you spend a penny—what my Pink Pain Tablets can do, I will mail you free, a Trial Package of them—Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets, Neuralgia, Headache, Toothache, Period pains, etc., are due alone to blood congestion. Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets simply kill pain by coaxing away the unnatural blood pressure. That is all. Address Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

RESCUED BY ELEPHANT.

Bacil, an elephant, mother of the famous Jumbo, over 200 years old, owned by the John Robinson Circus, saved a man from death Monday at Wheeling, W. Va. A freight engine on the Baltimore and Ohio Railway near Morgantown was derailed, and the engineer, James Malcolm, was caught beneath tons of wreckage. The wreck caught fire, and it looked as though the engineer was doomed, human hands being unable to rescue him. Two sections following the wrecked train, and having on board the circus, were flagged. With her trunk Bacil lifted the wreckage from the body of the engineer, and he was taken out just as the flames reached him. Eight other elephants were organized into a fire brigade, going to the Monongahela river, filling their trunks and extinguishing the blaze.

Neighbors Got Fooled.

"I was literally coughing myself to death, and had become too weak to leave my bed; and neighbors predicted that I would never leave it alive; but they got fooled, for thanks be to God, I was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It took just four one dollar bottles to completely cure the cough and restore me to good sound health," writes Mrs. Eva Uncapher, of Grovertown, Stark Co., Ind. This King of cough and cold cures, and healer of throat and lungs, is guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
